

More Deadly Tucker Cookbook- Order Form

“More Deadly Tucker Cookbook”, is a pictorial, practical know-how resource for the Aboriginal community; highlighting convenience, cost, and nutritional information.

The cookbook was designed following feedback from over 100 Aboriginal people in the Perth metropolitan area.

Most of the recipes contained in this cookbook were provided by community. Forty recipes were reproduced, tested and analysed up to three times.

Recipes in this cookbook conform with the new Australian Dietary Guidelines. The recipes presented in the More Deadly Tucker Cookbook were also taste- tested and approved by community members.
